

April 2025

At Denver Children's Advocacy Center (DCAC), we believe that every child deserves to grow up in a safe, supportive environment where they feel belonging and hope. Yet, thousands of Colorado children experience abuse every year. DCAC is working to change this. We prevent child abuse, strengthen families, advocate for children who have suffered abuse, and work tirelessly to ensure all children have the childhood they deserve—one filled with optimism, joy, and happiness. Our Hope Starts Here campaign raises awareness about child abuse, provides education about how to prevent child abuse and inspires others to show up for children who need us. But we can't start hope here without you. We need your support this April and always.
