Employee Volunteers and Engagement

DCAC offers a variety of opportunities for your team to make a difference by designing a partnership that fits your team's strengths. By getting involved, your employees help create safe spaces, bring comfort to children in crisis, and show families they are not alone in their healing journey.

Education Partnerships:

Join a growing movement of champions for children by bringing prevention training directly to your workplace. For a donation of $1250 you will receive lunch and a training from DCAC staff members on a topic of your choice. Our experts can provide trainings on prevention in your community, signs and symptoms of abuse and neglect, internet safety, and more!

Host a Fundraiser:

Engage your employees in raising funds to protect children in Denver by hosting an event of your choice. You coordinate the event space and fundraising, while DCAC staff will support the event with setup and a brief presentation. Examples of events include golf tournaments, the Colfax Marathon, holiday parties, and trivia night.

Onsite Volunteers:

Visit our campus and complete projects that contribute to a positive environment for our clients and staff! DCAC will provide the necessary materials for onsite projects. DCAC offers a variety of opportunities for your team to make a difference. By volunteering, your employees help create safe spaces, bring comfort to children in crisis, and show families they are not alone in their healing journey.

Care Kits and Drives:

Your group can collect materials that bring comfort and hope to children and families during their most vulnerable moments. We'll provide a list of needed items, making it easy for your team purchase and assemble kits that make an immediate, tangible difference in young lives.

Awareness Ambassadors:

Make a difference by using your business platform to expand child abuse awareness. We will provide tools tailored to your audience and resources, allowing your team to engage in prevention efforts and amplify client voices while boosting brand recognition. Participate in Wear Blue Day, social media campaigns, and more!

DCAC provides all the materials, while your employees provide the heart, energy, and teamwork that make our environment safe, welcoming, and full of hope for our community.
